SUBJECT.

Copied Ltr 28/4.

Agreement made the eighteenth day of November ~~1904~~ 1904 between the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore (hereina ter referred to as the Government) represented for the purpose of the execution of these presents by the Dewan of Mysore for the time being, of the one part, and William Robert Colton of Eaton Studio, Eaton Terrace, St. John's Wood, in the County of London, Associate of the Royal Academy, of the other part:

Whereas, by a preliminary Agreement between the parties hereto, dated the 13th day of June 1904, it was agreed (among other things) that they should, on the happening of certain events, enter into a final Agreement in regard to the execution by the said William Robert Colton of a statue and other works as a memorial of His Highness the late Maharaja of Mysore;

And Whereas the events contemplated have now happened:

Now These Presents Witness:

1. That the said William Robert Colton agrees to execute for the Government the following works as a memorial of His Highness Sri Chamarajendra Wadiar Bahadur, G.C.S.I., late Maharaja of Mysore, namely:-a statue in bronze of heroic size of the said Maharaja, standing, in his G.C.S.I.robes, together with two bronze reliefs, of size six feet by three approximately, representing a Dassara scene or other subject subjects to be mutually agreed upon, for the decoration of the base; the said works to include also the submission of designs and working drawings only of a canopy, pedestal, surrounding wall and enrichment thereof, but not the execution of any such canopy, base or enrichment by the said William Robert Colton, which latter is to be the subject of a future agreement after the design thereof shall have been submitted and approved.

2. And also that he will execute the said statue and other works accessory thereto as aforesaid to the very best of his skill, taste and judgment, and complete the same as speedily as possible having regard to the prior claims on his time and attention of any works that may have been undertaken by himpreviously to the execution of these presents, and not later in any case than the expiration of four years from the date of this Agreement.

3. And that the said William Robert Colton further agrees to deliver the said statue and accessory works well and safely packed and free of charge on board at the port of lading in England.

4. Provided always that, in case of the said William Robert Colton dying or becoming permanently disabled or incapacitated before the completion by him of the said statue and accessory works, the same or so much thereof as may be left incomplete shall be completed, in accordance accordance with the terms of this agreement, under the su pervision of such Sculptor being an Associate or Member of the Royal Academy as may be selected by and at the expense of the said William Robert Colton his executors and adminis trators.

5. And the Government, in consideration of the undertakings aforementioned on the part of the said William Robert Colton agrees to pay to the said William Robert Colton a sum of five thousand pounds in three equal instal-ments of £1666-13-4 as follows, that is to say:-

the first instalment on the execution of these pre-sents;

the second instalment on the said statue being comple-ted in clay;

and the third instalment on delivery by the said Willam Robert Colton to an Agent specified by the Government in this behalf of the bill of lading for the said statue and accessory works.

All such payments to be made in London in sterling money of Great Britain and without any deductions whatsoever.

6. And it is hereby lastly agreed and declared by the parties hereto and particularly by the Government that this Agreement shall be construed and that the rights and obliga tions of the parties and of all other persons claiming hereunder shall be regulated and determined according to

to the law of England in the same manner as if the Government were, and were henceforward, to remain, domiciled in England.

In Witness Whereof the said parties have hereto set their hands the day and year first above written.
